Affidavit of Original Work

According to § 24 (7) of the Examination and Study Regulations (RaPo) of the Europa-Universität Flensburg for the Degree Program European Cultures and Society with the completion of Bachelor of Arts (2023), the student has to hand over, separately and in writing, the following personally signed assurance:

Please use the following text:

Declaration/Affidavit

"I hereby expressly declare that I have written this thesis independently and have not used any sources or aids other than those specified. In particular, I expressly affirm that I have not used any services or other support services of any kind from ghostwriting agencies or comparable service providers or other third parties, whether paid or free of charge, in the preparation of this thesis. Text passages taken or borrowed verbatim or in spirit from printed, electronic or other sources have been clearly marked as such by me.

The submitted work or essential parts of it have not previously been submitted in another examination procedure, and the written version submitted corresponds to that on the electronic storage medium.

I am aware that violations of this assurance may not only lead to the assessment of the submitted examination work as "insufficient (5.0)", but in more serious cases may lead to further measures by the Europa-Universität Flensburg, including de-registration.

I am aware that the work can be stored digitally and checked by anti-plagiarism software. I agree to both the data storage and the checking of my work by anti-plagiarism software.

I agree / disagree with the lending of my work."
