ICES Call to support activities strengthening European Studies at EUF/ Deadline: 24.10.2024

ICES (ko-)finanziert Drittmittelanträge, Konferenzen, Fellowships, OA und Forschungsinfrastruktur

ICES welcomes proposals from ICES Members for initiatives that aim to foster European Studies at the EUF by expanding EUF's research infrastructure, promoting early career researchers, or strengthening academic networking. This includes: 1) Preparation of a third-party funding application; 2) Preparation of an international conference; 3) (Researchers in Residence) Fellowships; 4) Open Access Fees; 5) Research infrastructure. For each of the above mentioned initiatives: Please send a short description (max. 1-2 pages; English or German) of your idea, background and purpose, as well as an estimate of the costs to ices@uni-flensburg.de by October 24th. This deadline is not a cut-off date. Applications can still be submitted after that date, but funding is subject to the availability of remaining funds. This call is planned to be announced two times per year. Further information about the funding opportunities can be found here.

We are looking forward to your proposals!

ICES Meeting of Members 2024 with a PhD Graduation Celebration

ICES Mitgliederversammlung 2024 am 12. Dezember ab 16:15 Uhr

You are cordially invited to this year's ICES Meeting of Members. At the ICES Mitgliederversammlung we will have the opportunity to discuss ICES projects and activities in 2024. The meeting will take place in hybrid format in English and/or German at Riga 601 and webex. We will combine this year's meeting of members with a celebration of the successfully completed doctorates and invite you to a small reception afterwards.

DFG Antragswerkstatt für Wissenschaftler*innen in der Bildungs- und/oder Europaforschung

ICES/ZeBUSS Project Grant Proposal Workshop/ First session: 18.10.2024

The DFG Project Grant (Sachbeihilfe) is Germany's most popular topic-open funding format for basic research. Are you considering to submit a Sachbeihilfe proposal or are already working on it, then our DFG Antragswerkstatt in Autumn Semester 2024/25 can support you along your way to submitting the proposal! This workshop, organized by ICES and ZeBUSS, is designed for post-doctoral researchers and professors, aiming to complete a DFG proposal over the course of the semester. Participants will meet every 3-4 weeks for 1 hour via Webex, forming interdisciplinary or subject-specific groups of 2-3 people. Each session will cover one or more different chapters in the proposal template, with a brief input from Simone Onur and Maria Schwab followed by a peer-to-peer discussion of the participants' proposal sections. Between sessions, participants will write the designated proposal section and share it a few days before the next meeting for peer review.

The language of instruction and concrete dates will be determined in the first session. If you are interested in joining the group, please contact

Maria Schwab (ices@uni-flensburg.de) or Simone Onur (simone.onur@uni-flensburg.de). The first session will take place on the 18th of October, 10 am via Webex.

DFG: Internationale Kooperationen innerhalb und außerhalb Europas

DFG: Standing Open Proposal Submission Opportunities in the individual grants programme

The Deutsche Forschungsgemeinschaft (DFG) maintains agreements with funding organizations across Europe and worldwide to facilitate transnational research activities. In addition to fixed proposal deadlines, some agreements offer Standing Open Procedures, allowing submissions at any time.

These are available with partners in countries including Austria, Belgium, Czech Republic, Luxembourg, Poland, Switzerland, and Italy (Bolzano, South Tyrol).

Globally, the DFG has agreements with partners in Brazil, Colombia, India, Turkey, and the USA (in selected fields). Applications must be submitted in parallel to the DFG and the respective partner organization. Only projects positively assessed by both organizations will be funded. Further information.
